

Orchestra Toronto is hiring an Executive Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO, ON – January 23, 2017 Orchestra Toronto has directed a committee of its board of directors to immediately conduct a search for its next Executive Director.

Orchestra Toronto has asserted itself as ‘the crown jewel’ of Canadian community orchestras. Its musicians, staff, and volunteers are driven by passion and excellence. The Executive Director will be expected to support the growth of the organization with specific attention to the administrative, production, marketing and fundraising operations of the ensemble.

The Executive Director role is a permanent part-time position (four days a week) that requires excellent leadership skills, experience in the administration of a large arts organization and the ability to provide strategic advice to a volunteer board of directors and act as the Hub of orchestra information and operations.

The Executive Director will play a prominent role in the development and promotion of Orchestra Toronto through the support of membership policies, fundraising, marketing, recruitment, and will act as the ‘ambassador’ of the OT brand.

Orchestra Toronto invites qualified applicants to submit a cover letter and CV by e-mail to the address below no later than February 28th, 2017.

A full job description can be found in the attached job posting.

Orchestra Toronto, founded in 1954, is the Orchestra in Residence at the beautifully appointed, state of the art George Weston Recital Hall in the Toronto Centre for the Arts.
